MOVING AROUND IN THESSALONIKI

By Air

Macedonia airport is located approximately 8 km from the Nautical Club and access is easy by car, bus or taxi.

Transportation from the airport

Line 78 starts from Macedonia airport and makes a stop at the A.S. IKEA bus station where you can find connections with many other major bus lines. There is a bus line that stops exactly outside of our premises. Ticket price: 1 €

There is a taxi stop at the airport. Taxis are used frequently and usually easily found either by telephone or on the street. Current fare from the airport to our facilities will cost around 10 Euro.

By Train

The railway station is about 30 minutes distance from the club near the center of Thessaloniki..

By Ferry

Greece is connected with Italy through major ferry companies. You can travel from Ancona, Bari, Venice and other cities to Igoumenitsa or Patra. From there you can travel with inland transportation making use of various bus routes or trains.

Visas

Greece is part of the European Union, therefore visitors within Europe do not need any additional permits. For visitors outside the EU. make sure you have all appropriate documentation.

Accommodation

There is ample hotel and tourism infrastructure in place to serve athletes, committees and spectators. Most hotels are located in the center of the city and near the waterfront. The distances to the Nautical Club of Thessaloniki are on an average of 15 to 35 minutes.
